Neighborhood Yard Sale

Crescent Hill United Methodist Church and the Peterson-Dumesnil House Foundation are hosting a neighborhood yard sale on Saturday, April 4th, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the church parking lot, located at the corner of Frankfort Avenue and South Peterson Avenue. Set-up will be from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.

Here's your chance to clean out your attic or basement and make $$$.

$15.00 ($12.00 in advance) reserves you a spot. The Frankfort Avenue Business Association is planning a "Sidewalk Showcase Sale" that day so there should be lots of prospective shoppers.

Spaces are limited, so please make your reservations now!

For more information, call Crescent Hill United Methodist Church 896-0396 or Peterson-Dumesnil House 895-7975.

Owen to Speak at General Meeting

As the Commonwealth of Kentucky begins its bicentennial celebration, Kentucky history will be the focus of the April General Meeting of the Crescent Hill Community Council. Local historian Tom Owen will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "Kentucky in the Popular Imagination."

The meeting will be held on Monday, April 6 at the Peterson-Dumesnil House, 301 South Peterson Avenue, beginning at 7:30 pm. Light refreshments will be served.

Owen is an archivist at the University of Louisville and is Third Ward Alderman for the City of Louisville. He frequently speaks on Kentucky and local history and has earned a reputation as an entertaining lecturer.

The meeting is open to the public and all Crescent Hill residents are invited.
